Holiday Bazaar

I would like to thank everyone who helped make the Holiday Bazaar a success; especially the crew that did the set up and worked the bazaar for 2 days. Also thanks to the ladies that worked all year making the items for sale, the people who donated items, the lovely quilt, and other items for the silent auction and donated the baked goodies and the soup. Final bid for the silent auction items will be at the pot luck in December. Thanks also to the people who came and purchased items and the folks that had lunch.

We still have a few things left. We hope you will stop by and BUY.

Thank you everyone.

TRIPS

November Trip

Rain was predicted for the day of our November trip but we had sunshine until we started home from the Portland area. Our day started with a leisurely lunch at Sweet Tomatoes in Tigard. From there we went to the Alpenrose Opera House to enjoy a program put on by the NW Senior Theatre group. Seventeen seniors were singing and dancing across the stage. One song I got a kick out of was a ditty sung by a woman who was going to do her Christmas shopping and was having trouble finding a parking space. Her advice at the end of the song was "TAKE A CAB." We even got to have audience participation by singing White Christmas. I heard many remarks from our bunch that they enjoyed the trip. Thanks for the kind words.

Thus, 2014 comes to an end as far as planning trips goes. Nona and I will be looking forward to planning more trips in 2015.

WE WISH ALL OF YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

Monday Movie

The movie this month is "A Hobo's Christmas." A hobo played by Barnard Hughes decides it's time to go home. Drifting from place to place, Hughes finds himself in his hometown of Salt Lake City at Christmas time. Here he hopes to close old wounds and be reunited with his unforgiving son played by Gerald McRaney, and get to know the grandchildren he has never met. McRaney, still resenting the fact that Hughes ran out on his family 25 years earlier, gives his father only one day with his grandkids; after that, he's expected to leave and never come back. All the while Hughes' friends warn him that his son and the past are memories that are best left alone, and should leave, but he has to find out for himself.
