Reid's Ramblings

I think fall has started to set in; the leaves are starting to change colors and fall off the trees. It is a beautiful time of the year.

Our programs are in full swing for the coming year. Someone has already won the big money at Bingo. This month we will have a Health and Wellness seminar on the 8th, 15th and 22nd. This will be led by member Madison Rothchild.

I attended the City Council meeting September 15th and they approved moving forward with the CDBG grant request to fund the building of our new Senior Center. Rita Grady will be writing the grant the end of September so we should begin to see some positive activity on this project soon.

The library has put up paintings on their wall for everyone to see. The paintings came from a painting class that Norma Hastings taught at the Senior Center. Please stop by the library and take a look at them, they are very nice and believe it or not the painters are first time students. I think they did very well.

Come join us on October 11th at the monthly meeting/potluck, we are going to have a special speaker from Salem, her name is Susan Jones and she is an Ombudsman employed by the State of Oregon.

Bingo

A reminder to come join the fun and maybe win a few dollars in the process , We had a very nice crowd last week, The new progressive pot is starting at $ 35.00. The price is the same 6 cards for $5.00 or $ 1.00 a card. Progressive pot is $1.00 a sheet. A great way to spend an evening, hope you will come join us on the 3rd. or 17th. of October.

Bazaar

We are looking for help. We would like to appeal to all the wonderful crafty folks out there. We are asking you to make several items for our bazaar in November. The ladies at the center meet and work on projects twice a month but we need you to help. We also sell baked goodies so keep that in mind. So when you make Aunt Suzie's Christmas gift make a couple extra, we would love that and it will help make our bazaar a great one.

TRIPS

September Trip

We lucked out with another gorgeous day for the trip. Our first stop was at the Sheridan Museum. It isn't usually open on Fridays but they opened it especially for us. And what an interesting place it is. I liked the bed turning where they displayed the quilts and gave a narrative on each one as to who made it, when it was made, etc. Some of our travelers were familiar with family names in the museum and that made it more personal.

After the museum, we went to Willamina for lunch at Coyote Joe's. No complaints were heard about the food or the ample servings. Then on to Grand Ronde where Steve Bobb, the designer of the West Valley Veterans Memorial, gave us the history of the idea for the memorial, fund raising, etc. It is truly a beautiful

Winona shows the name of a family member piece of artwork. Steve had also joined us for lunch at Coyote Joe's so we felt like we already knew him. We heard many nice remarks at the end of the trip so it made it all worthwhile. Many thanks to Jerry Wennstrom for chauffeuring us all over the place.

October Trip

Set aside Friday, October 17th, for a trip to Salem. We will go to Shari's Restaurant on South Commercial for lunch. (I stopped there to make arrangements and what yummy pies they have on display!!) Then we will venture a few miles further south and visit with the people at the South Salem Senior Center. The bus will leave at 10:45 AM so please be there 10 min. before that time. The fee for the bus is still $5. Lunch will be on your own. Let's hope for a beautiful fall day for this trip. See you then.

NOTE: We might not be having a November and December trip. Those two months are so busy Nona and I just might take them off. But we will see you on Oct. 17th.

Monday Movie

The movie this month is "An Affair to Remember" a 1957 romance movie starring Cary Grant, Deborah Kerr and Richard Deming and directed by Leo McCarey.

The film is considered one of the most romantic movies of all time, according to the American Film Institute. The film was a remake of McCarey's 1939 film Love Affair, starring Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer.

If you just can't wait until the 20th you can see a trailer at this link.

Editor's Note

When the City prints our newsletter we lose some of the quality, essentially color pictures just aren't the same in black and white. We have made arrangements to have the news-letter posted on the web so you can see it in full color. Another advantage is downloading the newsletter and calendar at your leisure and avoiding the large files that slow down your emails. We suggest that you save the URL here to access the newsletter online. This also prevents confusion when members change their email address as often happens.

When this site opens put your cursor on City Departments and on that drop down menu click on Parks and Recreation and then Dallas Area Seniors. You will find all the newsletters and calendars for 2013 and 2014.

Health and Wellness

Seminar

We have a new class beginning October 8th. It runs from 10:00 until 11:30 am for 3 weeks. It's a "Health and Wellness" seminar for only $5.00. This is a class to increase quality and enjoyment of life. The instructor will be DAS member Madison Rothchild. She has been in health care for over 20 years; she worked with a number of Oregon doctors and chiropractors. Don't miss this class, sign up early at the Senior Center.

Music Jam

September Music Jam Wild Kick Off of Season Eight

Our own Dallas Senior Music Jam held Thursday, September 25, was a spectacular feat of fun and musical showmanship! Visiting musicians included none other than Jim Sliker, or "the man in the black hat," who drove all the way from Oregon City to share his particular brand of guitar picking and singing. We also had Dick Riley who came specifically to show off his new, and spectacular, accordion before he becomes a Yuma snowbird. Fan favorites Carlot Hall, Chris Cutler and the backbone of our musical night, Kermit Bale performed new songs. Candidate for County Commissioner, Danny Jaffer, performed several songs with our Leopard Chicks. Jam Host, Michele Campione, put on a show that, well, if you weren't there, you just plain missed something great! We all agreed it was one of the best jams ever, and that is really saying something.

Our October Jam will be held on a special night, October 30, so that we can include two of our favorite long-distance performers, Ruth and Pearlie, Blanche Pryor's sisters, visiting from Wisconsin. It, without a doubt, will be worth the wait!

The Jam begins at 6:30 p.m. and the theme, of course, is HALLOWEEN! All the fun songs we can find about the holiday!

Feel free to wear a costume. We know the Leopard Chicks have a little something special planned, so save the date! If you have questions or requests please contact host Michele Campione at 503-623-5055.
