

STREAKED HORNED LARK | PHOTO CREDIT Jim Leonard

JOIN THE FLOCK

The 2,500-acre Baskett Slough National Wildlife Refuge near Dallas is prime habitat for hundreds of bird species including the streaked horned lark, bald eagle and wood duck. The Refuge also has the world's largest remaining population of the rare Fender's Blue butterfly.

TAKE A CLOSER LOOK AT DALLAS, OREGON

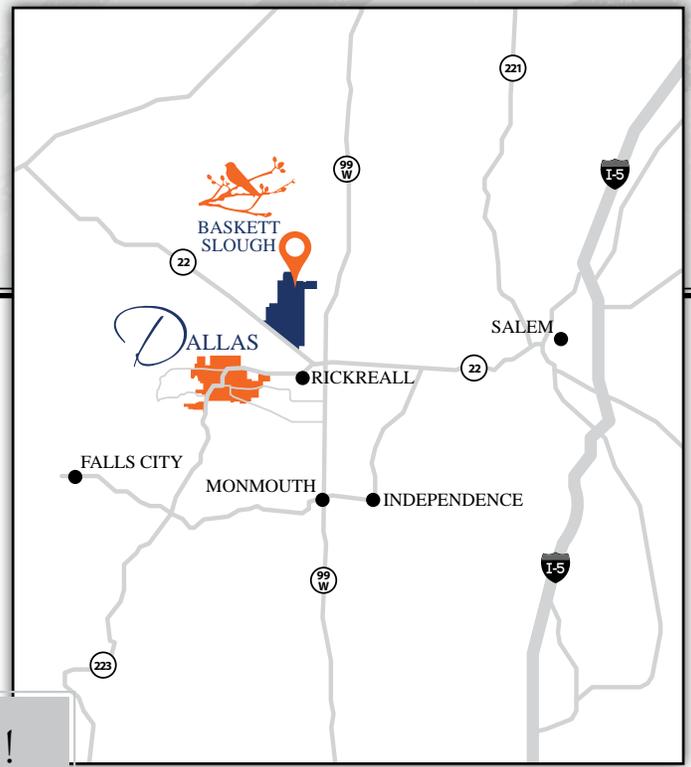

SCAN
FOR MORE

GETTING THERE

ON INTERSTATE 5, take exit 253 and proceed west through Salem toward Dallas. Travel northwest on Highway 22 through the intersection with Highway 99W at Rickreall. Go 2 miles further northwest on Highway 22 and watch for signs and wildlife viewing area on the right. (About 15 miles from Salem.)

FROM HIGHWAY 99W, turn west on Coville Road (two miles north of Highway 22). Go 1.5 miles to parking.

EXPLORE!

Baskett Slough Wildlife Refuge has expansive wetlands, fields, oak savanna and woodland. Year-round and seasonal trails, pullouts, observation platforms and overlooks offer excellent wildlife viewing:

- Highway 22 Wildlife Viewing Kiosk and Parking
- Intertie Trail – .4 miles (one way)
- Morgan Lake Trail – 1.6 miles
- Moffiti Marsh Trail – 1.5 miles
- Cackler Marsh Trail – Bald Eagles!
- Coville Road Trailhead
- Baskett Butte Observation Platform
- Baskett Butte Loop Trail

PHOTO CREDIT: Jim Leonard

ADD THESE BIRDS TO YOUR LIFE LIST

Calling all birders! Visit Baskett Slough and add us to your life list:

- | | | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------|------------------------|-------------------------|
| American Pipit | Golden Eagle | Northern Shrike | White-breasted Nuthatch |
| American White Pelican | Great Egret | Orange-crowned Warbler | White-tailed Kite |
| Bald Eagle | Gyr Falcon | Peregrine Falcon | Wilson's Phalarope |
| Black-throated Gray Warbler | Hutton's Vireo | Red-tailed Hawk | Yellow-headed Blackbird |
| Cackling Goose | Lapland Longspur | Rough-legged Hawk | |
| Cinnamon Teal | Lazuli Bunting | Streaked Horned Lark | |
| Dusky Canada Goose | Northern Harrier | Western Wood Pewee | |

You're Invited! After your next birding adventure, stop in Dallas for a meal or beverage.

TAKE A CLOSER LOOK AT DALLAS, OREGON

www.closerlookatdallas.com

WANT MORE INFORMATION?

Dallas Area Visitor Center: (503) 623-2564 • www.dallasoregon.org

Baskett Slough National Wildlife Refuge:

www.fws.gov/refuge/baskett_slough

Travel Salem: www.travelsalem.com