Reid's Ramblings

Lots of things are going on in November; the 13th and 14th we are having our big Craft Bazaar. Lots of things to buy, stay for lunch, homemade Soup, Sandwich and Pie.

The painting class is still going strong every Thursday at 10 am.

Don't forget that the General Meeting for November is on the 21st due to the craft bazaar. Bring your favorite dish to compliment roasted turkey and mashed potatoes and gravy.

The center will be closed on Thanksgiving Day to celebrate with your families. Have a great holiday!

Bunco Party

The Bunco party was a lot of fun. We had a small crowd. I am sorry if you missed it. There were great snacks and good company. There were a couple of people who had not played before but it is the sort of game that is easy to learn. Thanks to Chen Family Dish, Murphy's Grill and Sharon at Four Seasons Hair Salon for their donations for door prizes. Thanks to all who shared a fun time with us.

Bingo

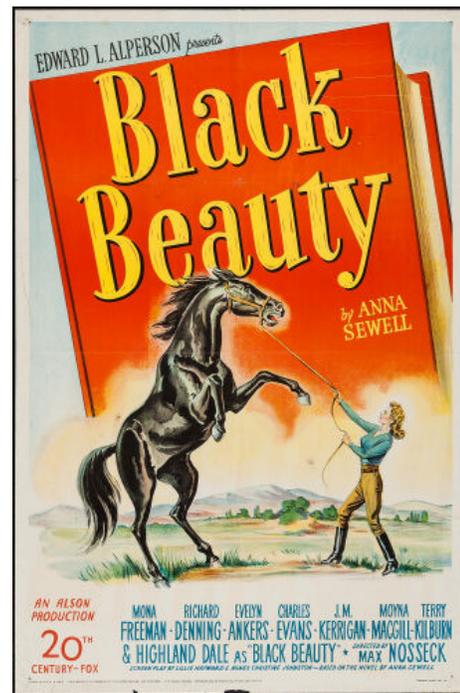

The progressive pot is growing, it is now up to $300.00; that can be won in 60 numbers or less. We hope to see you on the 1st and 3rd Fridays of the month at 6:30 p.m. The cards are still 6 for $5.00 or $1.00 a card. (No raise in cost) Progressive cards are $1.00 each. We have had great crowds, the more the merrier. Bring your favorite snack and join us. Doors open at 6:00 p.m., games begin at 6:30 p.m.

Monday Movie

The movie this month is the classic Black Beauty. Black Beauty is an 1877 novel by English author Anna Sewell. It was composed in the last years of her life, during which she remained in her house as an invalid. The novel became an immediate best-seller, with Sewell dying just five months after its publication, but long enough to see her only novel become a success. With fifty million copies sold, Black Beauty is one of the best-selling books of all time. While forthrightly teaching animal welfare, it also teaches how to treat people with kindness, sympathy, and respect.

The story is narrated in the first person as an autobiographical memoir told by the titular horse named Black Beauty—beginning with his carefree days as a colt on an English farm with his mother, to his difficult life pulling cabs in London, to his happy retirement in the country. Along the way, he meets with many hardships and recounts many tales of cruelty and kindness. Each short chapter recounts an incident in Black Beauty's life containing a lesson or moral typically related to the kindness, sympathy, and understanding treatment of horses, with Sewell's detailed observations and extensive descriptions of horse behavior lending the novel a good deal of verisimilitude.

Homemade soup and bread will be available for $2.00 . Bring a friend and join us.

Holiday Bazaar

Count down time for the Holiday Bazaar which is November 13- 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. It will be at the Civic Center this year. This year we have rented out tables to the crafters in the area so the variety will be great for you to come and do your Christmas shopping. Also plan to rest your weary body and have lunch with us. We will be offering home made soups, sandwiches and pie by the slice. Have a cup of coffee on us.

One last appeal for donations for the senior center table. Donations for baked goods and candies are also needed.

Just a reminder to the vendors; two o'clock (2:00) is the time you can set up on Thursday. If you have questions call Blanche at (503)623 -8289

October Trip

The October trip to the Sizzler in Salem was enjoyed by everyone. The food was great as always. Our next stop was the Honeywood Winery to do a bit of wine tasting for some of us. They have a large gift shop with something for everyone. I noticed a little early Christmas shopping for some. Since no one was in a rush to call it a day, we visited the cheese factory on Wallace Rd. in Salem. We did a little cheese tasting; after leaving there we did a little touring to see the fall colors. Thank you Cecil for driving. We missed one thing and that was my partner Helvi Ross.

Thanks, Nona

Take Care of Your Senior Center

If you leave your dirty dishes, food in the microwave, wet dish cloths, etc. you only create extra work for the folks who follow you. Please clean up after yourself; the next group will appreciate that.
