Monday Movie

The movie this month is White Christmas. White Christmas is a 1954 American musical romantic comedy film directed by Michael Curtiz and starring Bing Crosby, Danny Kaye, Rosemary Clooney, and Vera-Ellen, loosely based on the 1942 film Holiday Inn. Filmed in VistaVision and Technicolor, it features the songs of Irving Berlin, including a new version of the title song, "White Christmas", introduced by Crosby in the earlier film. Produced and distributed by Paramount Pictures, the film is notable for being the first to be released in VistaVision, a widescreen process developed by Paramount that entailed using twice the surface area of standard 35mm film. You can see a short trailer of this movie at:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AB1ZD6JKxes>

There will be a short commercial at the beginning.

Homemade soup and bread will be available for $2.00 . Bring a friend and join us.

Holiday Bazaar

The holiday bazaar was great; we had 14 vendors with a variety of items for sale. This is the first year we have rented tables; it was a good adventure with more variety to choose from. Personally, I did a lot of shopping. The lunches were just the touch we needed, hot soup on a rainy day. The baked goods had a large variety, home made bread, pies, cookies and more. I would like to thank everyone who contributed to the sale.

Special thanks to the crew for helping set up the tables and the clean up. Good Guy ribbons to you. Many thanks to Blanche Pryor and Betty Lalack, and their crew for their year long work to put this fund raiser together.

June Krause

Old Time Fiddlers
