

30 Days 30 Ways Preparedness Challenge

Day 30: Pass It On

Encourage your family, friends, coworkers, neighbors, anyone really to get prepared. Start or join a Neighborhood Watch & Community Preparedness group so that you and your neighbors can become familiar with each other's skills and abilities to help each other out. Stay up to date with preparedness tips and information by following various social media platforms such as the Office of Oregon Emergency Management. If you would like to be considered for the raffle to win the Mountain Adventure Meal Kit, send us a message and let us know how these last 30 days went and automatically be entered!

If you haven't been keeping up with the challenge tasks, we still want you to prepare. Go to this link to get started today! <https://www.ci.dallas.or.us/Archive.aspx?AMID=80>
