

Dallas Public Library Book Donation Policy

The Dallas Public Library appreciates donations of books and other materials to add or use in the Friends of the Library Book Sale. Donations of books and other materials are accepted during open hours only. Please don't leave materials outside the Library or in the book drop. Your donation is tax deductible; however by law Library staff cannot determine the value of a donation. You will be provided with a form acknowledging your donation.

Acceptable Donations:

Paperback and hardcover books in GOOD CONDITION, both fiction and non-fiction, for children and adults.

DVDs and Books on CD.

We Cannot Use:

Books which have been stored in basements, storage units, have any odor, are moldy or have torn or missing covers.

Reader's Digest or any condensed books.

VHS Movies or Audio Cassettes.

Dated publications such as old encyclopedias, almanacs, tax guides, travel guides, medical and technical books and textbooks older than 5 years.
