

Want to be part of the YAC?

Middle School or High School age youth can apply now for the City of Dallas Youth Advisory Council

What is the YAC?

The YAC is created to provide an opportunity for the Dallas youth to participate and voice their concerns regarding local issues and challenges.

What does the YAC do?

The YAC discusses community issues and concerns, may testify at City Council meetings, testify at state legislative committee meetings, perform service projects, and learn more about how the City works!

How much time does the YAC take?

YAC activities take as much time as you want to put in. Other than the regular meetings, YAC activities don't require a lot of time.

When does the YAC meet?

The YAC meets once a month at a time determined by the participants!

Applications are available at:
